Encounter check

D6 VS. THRESHOLD

SITUATION	NORMAL REGION	DANGEROUS REGION
Day watch	1-in-6	2-in-6
Move & Stay watches — roll each watch on the region's table
Night camp (+1)	2-in-6	3-in-6
Keeper on watch spots the encounter first
Fast travel	2-in-6	3-in-6
1× per day · "dangerous" applies if any part of the day's route crosses a Moderate/Hard region

Forage & Hunt

RESOURCE ROLLS

Forage MOVE WATCH ONLY

Quartermaster picks one:

· Wood — 3-in-6 → 1 wood

· Rations — 1-in-6 → 1 ration

Not allowed on Stay watches. On Fast travel: 1× per day.

Hunt STAY ACTION

Roll n-in-6 where n = PCs in party.

+1 with relevant proficiency · +1 favourable terrain (GM call) · cap 5-in-6

On hit: 1d6 rations. Hunt yields food only — does not count toward heal.

Region & encounter tables

MAP STRUCTURE

Region size	19 hexes — 1 centre + 2 rings of neighbours
Table size	each region has its own 8-entry random encounter table
Base threshold	1-in-6 per watch · 2-in-6 in "dangerous" regions
Night modifier	+1 to the threshold during the night camp
If intelligent	continue into Encounter phase — reaction roll 2d6 (low hostile · mid neutral · high friendly)

Features

VISIBILITY LADDER

Overt	Visible from afar or obvious on entry. From high ground, spotted up to 1 hex away . Pulls the party toward it.
Hidden	Requires active search. The party must Explore the hex to find it. This is what the Explore action is for .
Secret	Unlocked by a clue, vision, password, or trigger. Rewards connecting clues across the map.
